

Announcing the Quartus Foundation's
 2009 Mystery School
THE MYSTERY SCHOOL OF UNDISCOVERED REALITIES
 October 14-18
 Tapatio Springs Resort, Boerne, Texas

"And to someone who will not know the root of all things, they remain hidden."--From the Dialogue of the Savior in the Nag Hammadi texts.

There are dimensions beyond dimensions, universes beyond universes, realities beyond realities, yet the Lighted Path continually moves through the circle of infinity to offer new insights into the hidden mysteries of knowledge and wisdom.

Can we truly know that which is good, true and beautiful in life? Can we break the chains that bind us and return to the glory we once knew? Let us join together in a resounding Yes. The "root of all things" is waiting to be discovered. The result and purpose of this Mystery

School: the paradise of contentment in daily life.

Joining John and Jan Price on this journey through cosmic fields will be other teachers who will share their understanding of the hidden realities. To cover this holy ground there will be additional sessions during the days and evenings, a deeper reverence in the graduation ceremony, and a delightful pre-initiation party the evening before with marvelous entertainment.

That which is sacred blended with gaiety is the fruit of life. It will be a most complete Mystery School.
